

Expedition Suites

The Ultimate in Space and Style

It's time for your clients to indulge their inner explorer. By reserving one of our spacious and serviced suites, they will relish the best in onboard accommodation with a host of special features.

Home Suite Home

Our expedition ships are our guests' home away from home, so why not suggest they treat themselves to a premium suite while they are at sea. Comfortable, casual, and complete with everything they need, a suite offers the perfect space for relaxation and reflection after days full of adventure and discovery.

Why travel with HX?

Since 1896, we've been taking curious travellers on mindful expeditions to the most remote and awe-inspiring places on the planet. Today we invite your clients to join us on an expedition with HX – and change the way they see the world.

Find yourself in a world of wonder

From cultural encounters to wildlife wonders, what your clients will see and learn on their trip will inspire them and give them a deeper, richer love of the planet we all share.

Experts in expedition since 1896

Every day, handpicked experts from a range of fields will lead your clients on discoveries on shore and on board including hikes, community visits, kayaking, talks and more.

Adventure is all-inclusive

We believe that getting the most out of an expedition with HX shouldn't be a luxury. That's why daily adventures come at no extra cost.

Made for curious travellers

With the most extensive science programme in the industry, we bring learning right into the heart of our ships.

Welcome to mindful adventure

From our hybrid ships to finding better alternatives to single-use plastics and heavy fuel oils, our guests quickly learn why we were a top-ranked cruise company in Sustainalytics' 2023 report.

Savour your dining options

Your clients will get the chance to indulge on almost anything their appetite desires across a huge list of delicious choices.

Friendly, informal and intimate

With no dress code and only 90-490 other guests on board, your clients can simply relax and enjoy our warm and professional service.

Adventure is all-inclusive
